With regards to the cheque/amount paid to the United Agencies and Car Organization, the Royal Consulate General of Saudi Arabia, Mumbai has clarified as follows:-

“Important message for Haj Visas”

“The Government of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia does not charge any fees from the Hajj pilgrim. The amount charged by cheque in the name of United Agencies from the Hajj pilgrim is against basic services provided by the private sector such as lodging plus transportation in Mena and Arafat to the pilgrims. This amount is collected by the United Agencies on behalf of services provided by the private sector”.
